

CAMP CONNECT

A Residential Leadership Development and Academic Institute designed for Migrant Students.

Migrant students are invited to participate in this unique project that combines the best elements of personal development and academic learning. The curriculum is designed to enhance group cohesion and mutual support as well as inform this special group about opportunities in education, business, trades, etc. Inter-Act has been recognized as an exemplary provider of leadership programs for migrant youth (featured on PBS and Despierta America). The project will be held at Jack L. Boyd Outdoor School July 15-17, 2011.

Jack L. Boyd is an Outdoor School located in beautiful Yosemite. Initially, participants will experience a series of hands on activities and experiential challenges supported by adventure based curriculum and counseling methodology. The activities and lessons in this component are designed to enhance teambuilding, confidence, mutual support, and leadership skills. A secondary component will be a series of workshops, activities and speakers designed to educate and motivate Migrant students regarding the opportunities in many areas of this society such as business, education, trades, agriculture. Each participant will have an opportunity to develop short and long term goals.
